

Eloquent Elocutionists

Sharanya M C and Sreenandini Das, studying in class 10, won individual second prizes at the Inter School Elocution Competition organised by St. Rossello's Central School as an initiative to encourage the vision of the upcoming G20 Summit in India. The two speakers spoke about interconnectedness, the assertion of cultural identity based on mutual respect and the acceptance of diversity. Sharanya and Sreenandini both expressed appreciation for India's cultural unity despite its many contrasts.
