

Markswoman Makes Her Mark

M J Devanshi, a seventh-grade student, has showcased her exceptional shooting skills and profound understanding of the equipment. Transitioning from holding a pen and paper to mastering a calibrated rifle, she meticulously calculated her trajectory, resulting in a commendable achievement of one bronze and two silver medals in the 10m state-level shooting competition organized by the State Rifle Association.