

Admirable Accomplishments!

The NCC cadets of Excel Public School have displayed their exceptional talents and exemplified the values of leadership, discipline, integrity, teamwork, and perseverance.

The 29 cadets representing the Senior Division of the 14 Karnataka Battalion NCC excelled in the CATC/TSC camp organized by the 14 Karnataka Battalion NCC, winning several competitions among 600 cadets.

Under the exceptional leadership of SUO Malavika Padinhattayil from class 12, the team secured the first prize in the Tug of War event, demonstrating immense strength and determination.

In the Quiz Competition, SUO Srinivas Indavara Badrinath and Cadet Sohani from class 12 jointly emerged as winners for their extensive knowledge and quick thinking.

SUO Srinivas Indavara Badrinath showcased precision and focus in the Individual Drill category and won the third prize.

Cadet Sohani exhibited exceptional talent as an articulate emcee in the MC Competition and was honoured with the first prize. Cadet Gauri Santhosh Nair won the second prize in the same category, displaying excellent communication skills.

A soulful rendition of Cadet Rohini Santhosh captivated the audience in the Singing Competition, earning her the third prize.

Cadet Rohini Santhosh also won the first prize in the Voluntary Certificate Writing Competition for her promptness and beautiful handwriting.

The achievements of Team Excel in these competitions deserve the highest commendation. Congratulations to all the cadets and their mentors for their outstanding accomplishments!
