Victory Repeated: Brilliance by the Throwball Titans!

At the Interschool and Junior College Staff Throwball Tournament organized by Pramati Educational Institutions at the Pavilion Ground, Excel Public School once again proved its mettle with a spectacular back-to-back championship win. Our women's Throwball team, led by Ms. Pavithra Somayya K, showcased unparalleled grit, strategy, and team synergy throughout the tournament.

With eight reputed institutions vying for the title, EPS surged ahead with commanding performances. From powerful overhand serves to agile saves and seamless coordination, every rally was a testament to their rigorous preparation and indomitable spirit.

Each set played echoed focus, resilience, and a collective pursuit of excellence, as Team Excel conquered the court and clinched the coveted title for the second consecutive year- a true hallmark of dedication and teamwork.

This victory not only reinforces our legacy of excellence in sports but also celebrates the spirit of unity and determination that defines Team EPS.
